

DO or MAKE?

Do

vs

MAKE

DO means to carry out a specific action

MAKE means to create, manufacture, prepare

Do one's best/worst

Make an attempt, effort

Do a lot of damage

Make a cake, pizza

Do exercise

Make coffee/tea

Do harm

Make one's way back/home

Do a crossword

Make an excuse

Do housework

Make a loss

Do research

Make fun of sb/sth

Do the, etc. shopping

Make a mess

Do a subject at school

Make a mistake

Do badly/well

Make money

Do a favour

Make progress

Do an examination

Make an excuse

Do homework

Make an offer

Do one's hair

Make the bed

Do one's duty

Make a profit

Do repairs

Make a bargain/agreement

Do business

Make a compliment

Do sth for a living

Make a will

Do lessons

Make arrangements

Do miracles

Make peace/war